THE TELADOC SOLUTION

Cost

Healthcare expenses, premiums and out-of-pocket costs are increasing at twice the rate of inflation, putting the crunch on health plans, employers, unions and patients alike.

At $38/consultation, Teladoc is a great alternative to $150 urgent care visits or $750 ER visits.

Access

Americans can't get timely doctor appointments. The result? They go to costly ER and urgent care clinics, or they wait. Then spend half a day away from work for a 4-minute visit.

Teladoc has the largest national network in telehealth today. Our physicians are available 24/7 and have an average response rate of 22 minutes.

Quality

Retail and urgent care centers often use physician assistants and nurse practitioners. The average physician consultation lasts only 3-5 minutes.

Teladoc uses physicians that are board-certified in internal medicine, family practice, emergency medicine and pediatrics. And there is no time limit to a Teladoc consultation.
